PLANS PREPARED TO BETTER SCHOOL

Municipal Architect Arranges for Four-Room Addition to Congress Heights School—Appropriation of $33,000 To Cover Cost Available July 1.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU.
ANACOSTIA, D. C., MAY 29.

Plans have been prepared by the municipal architect for a four-room addition to the Congress Heights School. An appropriation was made in the last District bill for the enlargement of the school, the sum of $33,000 to be available on July 1. The plans provide for an additional story on the eight-room brick school, the type of construction to follow that of the building now in use. Red brick is to be used and some slight changes are to be made in the style of roof over the present one.

There will be no contract awarded until the money is available, but the addition will be finished by the next term. The Public Improvement Association of Congress Heights went before the Congressional committee and showed inadequate accommodations for the Congress Heights pupils, thereby procuring the appropriation.

Amateur baseball players will be seen in vaudeville sketches in the town hall in Congress Heights next Tuesday evening and they will imitate some of the professional diamond stars who have specialty acts on the stage.

The Rev. George M. Cummings, pastor of the Presbyterian Church here, will go to Riverdale, Md., tonight to serve as moderator of the congregational meeting to be held in the Presbyterian Church in that town.

Dr. J. E. Lind, who has been an examining surgeon at the Washington Asylum Hospital, has accepted an appointment as medical intern at the Government Hospital for the Insane.

The Altar Society of St. Teresa's Church has agreed upon a plan for obtaining funds for the school debt, whereby each member will procure the sum of $10 through entertainment, such as, or some other method.

Several Department Changes Are Made

Own Any Big Pennies? Well, They're Still Good

ALBANY, May 29.—Old-fashioned big copper pennies are still legal tender and must be accepted as fare by trolley car conductors if presented. A jury in city court here so decided.

Joseph W. Teater last February offered a conductor on a local car four "big coppers" and a modern cent in payment for his fare. The conductor refused to take them, and when Teater refused to leave the car the conductor and motorman tried to put him off. Teater sued the United Traction Company and a jury awarded him $25.

SCRANTON, Pa., May 29.—Three women witnesses did not appear in court and Magistrate Moir sent the case to the county jail. He reported the stock in contempt as all three had just given birth to twins.

The suit of Miss Agnes Gallagher, of Washington, against William H. Peter and John A. Garrett, attorneys for Mr. Bobinger, be taken to the Maryland court of appeals.

The suit was based upon injuries received by Miss Gallagher on Labor Day, 1910, as a result of a board on a bridge in the Bobinger property at Cabin John Bridge giving way under her weight.

Congressman Collier of Mississippi and J. Dawson Williams, of this county, will be the orators at the annual memorial exercises at Monocacy Cemetery, Boallsville, this county, next Saturday afternoon.

If You Had a Hundred Thousand Eyes!

Suppose you need an assistant in your office, or a servant in your home; you have a splendid position to offer, but find it difficult to fill—and all the time you are meeting with disappointment in finding the right man or woman, you feel, deep down in your heart, that somewhere in this big city there is some one who could fill the job, and who is yearning for the chance you offer!

If you only knew where, and how to find that man or woman! If you could only see into every nook and corner of this great big city!

Thousands of people have felt that way before. Some of them have kept on wishing, but the wiser ones wrote, called or telephoned to The Times, and tried the Want Ad. Way.

Times Want Ads. take the place of a hundred thousand eyes, for they deliver your message into more than seventy-five per cent. of the English speaking homes of Washington as well as into thousands of homes in the surrounding country in a day!

"The Want Ad. way is the modern way."
